ARE LAYING IN COAL

MISSOURIANS HEED WARNING OF FUEL ADMINISTRATOR

AN INCREASED OUTPUT

1½ Million Tons More Will Be Mined In State This Year—Total Consumption Will Reach 20 Million Tons

St. Louis, Aug. 30.—The people of Missouri are at least forty-five days ahead of where they were a year ago in the matter of supplying themselves with winter fuel, according to a statement by Wallace Crossley, state fuel administrator.

In making this statement, Mr. Crossley said he referred to the fuel already in storage and this was brought about by the people heeding the repeated warnings given them from time to time and from lessons learned during the trying times last winter.

The fuel administrator estimates that the state will consume 20,000,000 tons of coal, including the railroads, within the next twelve months. The coal consumed by railroads has never been figured separately from the entire amount consumed by the state. In past years Missouri has never produced above five million tons of coal, but this year the amount will total 6,500,000 tons, according to estimates made by Mr. Crossley.

The local production will in the large be consumed in the western portion of the state, while the remainder of the state, as far west as Jefferson City, will have to draw upon the Illinois coal.

The output as a whole is considered satisfactory as far as the individual consumer is concerned, and is a considerable improvement as viewed from the standpoint of the Missouri manufacturer. As to the short supply allowed brewing interests, Mr. Crossley says regulations are being faithfully complied with so far as the department is advised. Most of the brewerles in the state are manufacturing soft drinks and there has been a modification in the fuel orders to them for this purpose.

GETTING READY.

The solution of Maryville's problem of getting enough revenue to provide for operating expenses, a new charter having been suggested as a remedy, is as yet without an answer. A. F. Harvey, city attorney, and M. E. Ford, named by the citizens' committee of seven to investigate and suggest such procedure as would place the city on a better financial basis, while having looked into the legality of several plans, have as yet reached no definite conclusion that would warrant in making a report.

In this connection and looking to the future when some radical readjustments will be necessary following the war, Henderson S. Martin, of Lawrence, Kans., in a leaflet addressed to business men, makes some interesting suggestions. After the war the enormous industries now engaged in war work must either close or adjust themselves to some other kind of production. While this transition is going on several million boys will be coming home and looking for work.

Unless there is wise planning for the readjustment there is danger of a period of severe business depression. But such depressions can be largely prevented, Mr. Martin points out, if organized society—the nation, state and city—is in a position to undertake useful public work to take up the slack in the labor market. This work conld be carried on extensively for a time and then gradually cut down as business gets on a normal basis.

"This is the time," says Mr. Martin, "to appoint committees, to amend charters, to adopt plans and to provide funds for the commencement of public works at the first sign of approaching hard times. We should get away from the theory that good times and hard times depend upon the bounty of nature. It is not a question of natural laws; it is a question of management. We can prevent hard times as certainly as we can prevent pestilence."

Commenting on the suggestions by Mr. Martin, the Kansas City Star says:

"Our present job, of course, is to win the war. But meanwhile we should be looking forward and making the necessary plans for the inevitable business reorganization that is to come. Mr. Martin's suggestions ought to be given careful consideration not only by public officials, but also by industrial managers and employees in every city and state. It will take the united efforts of cities and states as well as of the nation to handle the elaborate plans that will be needed to carry the country successfully through the strenuous times ahead."

DRAFT QUESTIONS

NEW CARDS COVER REGISTRANT'S CITIZENSHIP FULLY

STUDY THEM---CROWDER

Men Will Be Grouped Into Three Classes That Calls May Be Quickly Filled

Washington, Aug. 29.—Provost Marshal General Crowder has issued to local draft boards throughout the United States detailed instructions for registrants in answering the questions on the registration cards to be used in enrollment of men affected by extension of the draft age limits.

There will be twenty questions on the cards, which are somewhat different in form from the card used in the registration of men between the ages of 21 and 31.

"Between now and registration day, early next month, prospective registrants are strongly urged by this office," the provost marshal general says, "to study carefully both the questions and the instructions, in order to be able to give prompt responses to the registrars. Similar request is made of the registrars."

Following are the questions and instructions:

Question 1—Name. The name must be given in full, thus: First name, middle names, last name. For example, "John Henry Smith."

Question 2 — Permanent home address. This means where you have your permanent home now, not the place where you work or the place where you were born, unless that is your permanent home. If the registrant lives in an apartment house he should state the number of the apartment in which he lives.

Question 3—Age in years. State your age in years only. Disregard additional months or days.

Question 4—Date of birth. If you do not remember the year give your birthday, as "October 12." Then say, "on my birthday this year I will be (or was)——— years old." The registrar will then fill in the year of birth.

Question 5—White?
Question 6—Negro?
Question 7—Oriental?
Question 8—Citizen Indian?
Question 9—Non-citizen Indian?
Question 10—Native born United States citizen? If you were born in the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii, you are a native born citizen of the United States

NEW WHEAT RULES

ONE POUND OF SUBSTITUTES TO FOUR OF FLOUR IS ORDER

NONE WITH MIXED FLOUR

If Latter Is Bought No Substitute at All Need Be Taken—Urge Continued Use of Corn Meal

Radical changes in the present wheat conservation rules, effective September 1, are announced by the food administration.

After that date only 20 per cent of substitutes will be required with purchases of wheat flour, instead of 50 per cent as at present.

Consumers may either buy standard wheat flour with 20 per cent of substitutes, or they may buy Victory mixed flours containing 20 per cent of substitutes mixed at the mills. If standard wheat flour is bought one pound of substitutes with every four pounds of wheat flour must be bought. If the mixed flour is bought no other substitute need be taken.

The announcement by the food administration is in part as follows:

"The recent careful survey by the food administrators of the United States, France, England and Italy of the food resources of the 220 million people fighting against Germany shows that to maintain necessary reserves there must be maintained in all countries a conservation of wheat flour during the coming year.

"It has been agreed that the wheat bread of the Allies shall contain 20 per cent of other grains than wheat and it is only just that we should bear our share in this saving and that our bread should be at least universal with those who are suffering more greatly from the war than ourselves.

Eat Corn Bread, Too.

"The Victory bread so made is wholesome and there is no difficulty in preparation.

"We desire to emphasize that the mixtures outlined below are for wheat bread and the saving of wheat flour, but they are not intended to displace the large use of corn bread. We must use the mixture with wheat flour in addition to our normal consumption of corn bread.

"Where straight wheat flour is sold by the retailer 20 per cent of other cereal flour must be sold at the same time. All bakers' bread shall contain 20 per cent of other cereals and the food administration relies upon the householders of the country to mix at least 20 per cent of the substitute cereals int othe wheat flour at home for all uses. Corn meal for use in corn bread should be purchased separately from the combination sales. In other words, corn meal bought with wheat flour should be used in baking wheat bread.

Victory Mixed Flour.

"It is desired to inspire a supply of ready mixed flour on the market and to have millers and dealers of all kinds encourage the use and sale of this flour so that the country may be on a mixed-flour basis without the necessity of retailers making combination sales of flour and substitutes.

"All such flours made according to the following regulations should be labeled with the ingredients in the order of their proportion.

"No mixed flours (except pancake flours) shall be made or manufactured except in the exact proportions as follows: Mixed wheat and barley flour shall be in the proportion of four pounds of wheat flour to one pound of barley flour. Mixed wheat and corn flour shall be in the proportion of four pounds of wheat flour to one pound of corn flour. Mixed wheat, barley and corn flour shall contain the proportion of eight pounds of wheat flour to one pound of barley and one pound of corn flour.

"Mixed wheat and rye flour shall contain the proportion of three pounds of wheat flour and not less than two pounds of rye flour. Whole wheat, entire wheat or graham flour or meal shall contain at least 95 per cent of the wheat berry.

"All these Victory mixed flours may be sold without substitutes, but at no greater price from the miller, wholesaler or retail dealer than in the case of standard wheat flour.

Standard Wheat Flour.

"The retail dealer selling standard flour is required to carry in stock either barley flour, corn meal or corn

WOMEN'S SOCIETIES MERGE

Baptist Church Workers Will Concentrate Their Efforts—Organize Woman's Auxiliary

Concentrating their efforts with a view to obtaining a greater efficiency in all lines of their work, the women of the First Baptist church met yesterday afternoon a tthe church and organized what is called the Women's Auxiliary.

All the women of the church, of whatsoever age, and all the societies in operation have been merged into this one unit. The women have realized the present importance of stay at home workers from every view point and believe they can accomplish much in war relief, religious, social, civil and home work by putting themselves into one organization instead of several distinct societies as has been the practice in past years.

Mrs. W. A. Burris has been elected president; Mrs. G. B. Holmes vice-president; Mrs. H. L. Raines secretary and Mrs. Clive Graves treasurer. For the special lines of work Mrs. J. A. Speirs has been chosen aid chairman, Mrs. Bruce Montgomery, missionary chairman and Mrs. Martin Borrusch home chairman. The heads of these different branches will appoint workers to assist them in their special lines.

The meetings of the auxiliary will be held on the first Friday afternoon of each month at the church. At this time all matters for the general good of the church and the women's branch will be discussed and they will work together in all the church activities.

Many sheep are being shipped into Barnard for feeding this year, says the Barnard Bulletin. Eaton & Breit got in two loads last Thursday and four Monday and are expecting several more loads soon. Smith, Fields and Hall are shipping in some sheep also. D. M. and C. M. Robison were in Omaha last week and received a car load of sheep Friday. Wilmer Clayton and Clarence Lyle bought a load the same day in Omaha and got them in Saturday. N. L. Pearce, N. E. Hartman and Geo. E. Baker motored to Omaha Monday evening, intending to buy. T. L. Alkire, James and Ralph Thrasher went Tuesday. Farmers generally say that there is good money handling sheep this year, for they will clean up the waste places and poor corn to better advantage than any other stock.

London, Aug. 30. — British patrols that crossed the Somme river at two points have reached the outskirts of Peronne and Driel. Th eindications are that Peronne will be occupied by the Allies within the next twenty-four hours.

London, Aug. 30.—British troops attacked early today on a front of seven miles from Bullecourt north to the Scarpe river, it was learned by the International News Service this afternoon. Early reports from the battle front related an advance of more than a mile all along the line. The village of Ritencourt on the famous Hindenburg line was reported captured by the British on this advance.

The British crossed the Somme river south of Peronne and its fall is hourly expected. Clery, Suresam and Combles were taken in the advance. The crossing of the Somme was made in spite of the fact that the retreating Germans had destroyed all bridges across the river in the vicinity of Peronne. The war office also announced the capture of Bullecourt, Hendencourt and Iesganscqurt by British troops. Remy also is in possession of the British. An attack by Canadians between Hendencourt and the Arras-Cambrai road is developing favorably. Further progress has been made by the British along the Scarpe and in the Lawe and Lye sectors.

Paris, Aug. 30.—The Americans have beaten off the counter attacks of the Prussian Guard in the Juvigny region and have maintained their gains which were taken in fierce fighting. German attacks along the Vesle and in Champaign were without result, while along the canal Dunord the night passed without change.

How can it be explained that Dr. Prettyman has continued his visits to Missouri for more than 20 years and has always had a large practice?

He certainly could not have done so unless he has done good work for somebody and has dealt fairly and honestly with all, whom he can come in contact.

If you are afflicted with any chronic disease, you should call on Dr. Prettyman, have him examine you and if he decides your case is curable, treat you. You can depend on him. See him at the New Linville Hotel, Monday, August 26. Adv.

MOLINE UNIVERSAL TRACTOR
It Solves The Farm Help Problem

Because of its ideal design, construction and performance this new Model D Moline Universal Tractor enables one man to farm more land and to produce more food than ever before possible. It is the world's most dependable farm hand.

This wonderful little farm giant possesses advantages offered by no other tractor in ease of control, adaptability to all kinds of work, whether belt driven or draft drawn and requires only one man to operate both tractor and implement.

The Moline does not pack soil, will go many places where other tractors can not. It will displace from 6 to 9 head of horses, and eliminate one man. And it is from 1,500 to 2,000 lbs lighter than other tractors that are capable of doing the same amount of work.

If you are interested in lowering your farm costs, you should not fail to investigate NOW this wonderful little farm giant. It will save you many dollars over horse-drawn equipment. See J. J. at the store NOW and he will explain in detail the operation and performances of the Moline Universal Tractor, Model D.

Feeding Mixed Wheat and Oats.

I have had repeated requests from persons who have a mixture of wheat and oats that they be permitted to feed the same.

And, having taken the matter up with the chief of the United States Grain Corporation, who has control of all matters relating to grain in this territory, I have been informed that there is a positive rule against feeding to stock any wheat which is fit for human consumption, and that in no case will anybody be allowed to feed this mixed wheat and oats.

I am further directed to assemble all such wheat and oats and ship the same to some terminal market to a cleaning plant and have the wheat and oats separated and sold separately and the returns made.

All persons having a mixture of wheat and oats are hereby warned not to feed the same to any kind of stock and are directed to communicate with me at once in regard to disposing of the same.

The Itching and Sting of Blazing, Fiery Eczema

Seems Like the Skin Is on Fire. There is a harrassing discomfort caused by Eczema that almost becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable, and the skin seems on fire with the burning irritation. A cure from local applications of salves and ointments is impossible, because such treatment can only allay the pain temporarily. The disease can only be reached by going deep down to its source.

The source of Eczema is in the blood, the disease being caused by an infection which breaks out through the skin. That is why the most satisfactory treatment for all so-called skin diseases is S. S. S., for this remedy so thoroughly cleanses the blood that no impurities can remain. Get a bottle to-day at any drugstore, and you will see results from the right treatment. A STATE FAIR TRIP

WINNER IN COUNTY CONTEST WRITES OF HIS VISIT

TELLS OF GOV'T. EXHIBIT

David Nicholson of Hopkins Tells In Detail of Interesting Things at the State Exposition

David Nicholson of Hopkins who won the trip to the state fair offered by the state educational department, writes of his visit to Sedalia and of the things he saw in a most interesting manner. A letter telling of the trip is one of the requirements of the boy from each county. Nicholson's letter follows:

MY STATE FAIR TRIP.

The contest for the State Fair school at Sedalia was open to Nodaway county boys July 6.

I entered the contest, taking examinations in arithmetic, agriculture, and geography, and composed an essay on "The Farm Boys' Part in Winning the War." I made the highest average and won the free trip to the State Fair.

I left Hopkins Friday, August 9 on the afternoon train for Kansas City. From there I took a morning train on the Missouri Pacific railroad for Sedalia and arrived there about noon.

I met Allen Mullvania on the train out of Kansas City. He was Atchison county's representative at the State Fair and later became my tent mate.

There were one hundred and eight boys in the State Fair school, representing different counties. We wore especially designed caps to show that we were members of the State Fair school.

Our meals were served cafeteria style at the women's building by ladies from the State Normal school at Warrensburg. Our meals were abundant and appetizing, served with a dessert of ice cream, watermelon or sliced bananas.

On arrival at camp we registered and were assigned to comfortable tents and cots by Mr. T. J. Walker. Plenty of tents and cots had been provided, but campers on the fairgrounds came and got some of the cots, so a few of the boys slept on the ground until they could be provided.

We had water piped to the camp for washing and kept ice water at the lecture tent for drinking. There was also a base ball, bat and volley ball court on the grounds.

We had a good lecture tent, with plenty of chairs and benches.

The regular program of the fair did not commence until Monday. On Sunday we had community singing and that celebrated orchestra, Siberati's Military Band and Grand Opera Company. They were there all week and were enjoyed by all music lovers present.

Sunday morning the boys had short Sunday School services with the lesson "The Good Samaritan." Each boy adopted the motto: "This Day I Will Beat My Own Record."

Dr. F. C. Allen, an osteopath and director of athletics of State Normal School at Warrensburg, was our captain and gave us military drills. He has had military training and left Wednesday to be director of athletics in a military camp. He was succeeded by First Lieutenant Ora G. Schwidde.

Through a courtesy of the State Fair board ten boys were allowed to return from last year's camp. Our officers were chosen from these. Ten boys will also be chosen to return next year from the 1918 class.

Of the fair the most instructive thing to me was the government exhibit. It contained war pictures, gas masks, a torpedo that cost $35,000, machine guns, automatic rifles, shells, submarines, uniforms, hand grenades, light field guns, carrier pigeons, hospital and medical field equipment, and flags of all nations. The Y. M. C. A., Red Cross, Salvation Army and other organizations made exhibits.

The government moving pictures were very interesting and instructive. The educational and agricultural buildings had some exceptionally interesting displays from the different counties and schools. The government had a couple of cars on the tracks at the fair grounds containing fish and mine exhibits. The fish exhibit car had large glass tanks of water with different kinds of fish, seaweeds and ferns in them. The other car had gas masks, trench helmets, shells, torpedoes, and other war trophies.

One of the most interesting things to me was the live stock buildings. Nearly every breed of cattle had a separate barn. The animals were kept clean and curried all of the time. The barns were kept as sanitary as possible. The animals were as true to type as long years of careful breeding could make them.

On Tuesday night there was a million dollar cattle parade in front of the amphitheatre and a million dollar horse and mule parade on Wednesday night.

On every night, beginning Monday, was held Gordon's Pyrotechnic drama, "World at War." He called for twenty of State Fair school boys to act as civilians in the play, but instead he put us into two imitation British tanks. These tanks were made of thick brown paper and ran on wooden wheels. They were pulled by ropes on the inside and that was our job. Five men were assigned to each tank, four to pull and one to fire the Roman candles. After the battle reached a certain height we started across "No Man's Land" with all the guns turned on us. It was certainly an exciting experience, as we got out with a few slight wounds. The fireworks were a magnificent sigt, when seen from a distance.

The vaudeville acts and De Carno, the ariel artist, were very interesting.

The horse and auto races came off on time, but Louis Gertson and his aeroplane failed to appear, although another aeroplane sailed over the fair grounds Tuesday morning.

The governor was to give an address Monday at 11 a. m., but didn't arrive until four o'clock p. m. So I missed hearing him. Prof. Cooper called twice at camp, but I was away and didn't get to see him. I appreciated very much his interest in me and am sorry I didn't see him, as I did not see any familiar faces from Nodaway county at the fair.

The members of the Boys' State Fair school had several instructive lectures every morning. Sam Jordan gave a lecture on Effort, and another on Seed Corn. Dean Mumford, state food administrator, lectured on characters. W. D. McKee gave a very interesting patriotic address and a ten minute talk on sheep. E. G. Bennett, dairy commissioner, gave an address on dairy cattle and brought a couple of Jersey cattle to be judged by the boys. Lectures were given by Dr. Luckey on Tuberculosis of Animals; one on Fertilizers by L. F. Childers, and two lectures on Poultry by C. T. Patterson of Springfield, Mo. J. Kelly Wright made an interesting lecture Thursday morning on German History. On Friday he closed the 1918 Boys' State Fair program with a lecture on Live stock.

The boys were interested in hearing Uel W. Lamkin, director of Boys' State Fair school. He said that the State Fair board is expecting to erect a building on the camp grounds containing an office, dining hall, lecture room, library, shower bath, etc. When this is done five boys from each county will come, instead of one.

There should be more interest among the boys of Missouri concerning this matter and I hope there will be thirty boys instead of three take the examinations to win the free trip to the State Fair next year.

In closing I want to thank the Maryville Commercial club for paying my carfare, and I will never forget nor regret my trip to the 1918 Missouri State Fair.

THREE MEALS A DAY

SHIPS AS DINNER PAILS

Sending Three Squares a Day to the Workers for Democracy Has No Small Task

In the old days on the farm the farmer's wife used to ring a big dinner bell at noon time which called all the laborers in from the fields to be fed.

Since her entrance into the war America has been like the farmer's wife in the kitchen trying to get ready enough food to supply the nations who are laborers in the cause of freedom.

America, however, cannot call the workers in to sit at her table. She must pack up the food and send it to them. Three times a day millions of men on the battle fields three thousand miles away must be fed. The dinner pails in this case are the ships.

How has America shipped these three meals?

She has increased her shipments of meats and fats 844,600,000 pounds, the amount sent in 1916-17 being 2,166,500,000 pounds, while that sent in 1917-18 was 3,011,100,000 pounds. This she has done in the face of fewer hogs to slaughter than 1916-17. This amount is almost three times as great as the pre-war average shipment.

As far as cereals are concerned the shipment for 1916-17 was 259,900,000 bushels; that for 1917-18, 340,800,000 bushels — an increase of 80,900,000 bushels.

The amount of wheat sent in 1916-17 was 135,100,000 bushels; in 1917-18 it was 141,000,000 bushels. These amounts seem quite comparable, but we must remember that America had a surplus of about 200,000,000 bushels over her own normal consumption in 1916-17. The 1917 wheat crop was not so good as could have been desired. We had only about enough for our own normal consumption. Early in the year there came an urgent request for an additional shipment of 75,000,000 bushels. We had already been meeting the demand and our surplus at this time was more than exhausted. We sent 85,000,000 bushels.

During our first year in the war we supplied 2,000,000 more men in England with complete rations than we supplied in the three previous years, yet all these countries are receiving much more than they did before the war.

Sending three meals a day to the workers for democracy has been no small task. America has accomplished it largely through wise managing at home. The whole American family has cheerfully awaited the word telling what to do; they have taken wheatless pledges, adopted meatless days, given up sugar. "Anything to help," they have said. They have gone out on the big American farm to put in bumper crops; they have cultivated little waste areas to grow food for themselves; they have saved out of their own three meals in order to ship the three meals to Europe.

WOMAN GARAGE ATTENDANT

Nodaway County Girl Puts Her Missouri Pluck Into Real Patriotic Service In California

Miss Elsie Wachtel, a Nodaway county girl now living in Imperial, Calif., has a patriotic spirit that believes in real work and not simply applauding at the sight of the Stars and Stripes, so she answered a "Help Wanted for Garage" sign and is taking a man's place for the company which employs her.

Miss Wachtel is a grand niece of Mr. and Mrs. John Airy of this city and a niece of Mrs. Oscar Mooney of Graham. With her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wachtel, she went to California a few years ago. The following account is from the Imperial Valley Press of August 22:

"El Centro probably established a record when Miss Elsie Wachtel, 18 years of age, a resident of Imperial, accepted a place in Bowles' garage as attendant. Miss Wachtel is a pronounced patriot of a type that has a most pleasing personality and one who is not afraid to soil her clothing or her hands.

"'I am the oldest of the boys or girls in my family,' Miss Wachtel said to the Press man, 'and I felt that I could help in some way. I saw the sign in the window—Help Wanted for Garage—and decided to get the job. I have been here for several days and the work is very agreeable. The men with whom I have come in contact so far have been as courteous as could be and are gallant in their attitude toward me.'

"Miss Wachtel is a splendid young woman in stature, dresses in a neat khaki overall, with cap to match, and she has a winning smile and a most intelligent countenance which will be very helpful to the company that employs her.

"This young woman who takes a place made vacant by a young man who went to fight for his country fills the gasoline tanks, gives the motorist oils and greases and does anything that would be required of a man. She can do a vulcanizing job as well as anybody.

"Miss Wachtel is a graduate of the schools of Imperial and is well known to a host of the young people of that city. Her family feel a pride in her and she feels a pride in herself.

HE WON'T DROP DEAD ANY MORE.

"My husband suffered terribly from stomach and liver trouble, which caused such bloating of gas as to seriously affect his heart. Doctors warned him that he might drop dead at any time from this trouble. A friend in Cleveland advised him to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and since taking it four months ago, he is feeling like a young man again. All his friends are surprised at his appearance." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucous from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by Maryville Drug Company and druggists everywhere. Adv.

MRS. DOOLEY'S ADVICE TO WORKING GIRLS

Milwaukee, Wis.—"I wish all girls who work and suffer from functional disorders would profit by my advice and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I was married, when I came home from work at night, I would be just worn out with pains which dragged me down. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel like a new woman. I can work from morning until night and it does not bother me, and I wish all girls who suffer as I did would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. H. DOOLEY, 1135 25th Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Working girls everywhere should profit by Mrs. Dooley's experience, and instead of dragging along from day to day with life a burden, give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It has overcome just such conditions for thousands of others, and why not for you? For special advice, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS AID

War Welfare Work Conducted In 45 Army and Navy Cantonment Centers—$1,000,000 Raised

Christian Science camp welfare work is now being carried on in forty-five army and navy camps in the United States under direction of the Christian Science war relief and camp welfare committee of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. There are at present about seventy men and women engaged in this work, the women serving mainly as welfare room attendants.

Conducted at first independently, the camp welfare work has been merged with the war relief work which the Christian Scientists were doing in foreign countries before the United States entered the war. For both these purposes about one million dollars have been raised.

The aim of the Christian Science camp workers is to be as helpful as possible to all the men in the camps, whether or not they are Christian Scientists, and particularly to give assistance which may not be available at the time or place through any of the other camp welfare agencies. A feature of this phase of the work is an arrangement for keeping soldiers and sailors in close touch with their relatives.

Cooperating with the committee in Boston there is a Christian Science camp welfare committee in each state. The committee in the home state of a soldier or sailor cooperates by mail and telegraph with the committee of the state in which he is camped or stationed to form a direct and constant link between the soldier or sailor and his relatives. Thereby the relatives are quickly made acquainted with needs of their boy in the service and he is provided with an avenue of quick communication with his home.

This linking of home and camp, combined with the personal attention of the Christian Science workers in the camps, has frequently been the means of changing a soldier's outlook from one of gloom to one of joy, and not infrequently it has proved to be the means of relieving relatives of financial embarrassment, the committee in the home state making loans for use by the relatives until their boy in camp should be prepared to forward money to them.

The net result, for which the Christian Science committees and camp workers have received many commendations, has been a noticeable raising of the morale of many men in the service and the development of a better feeling at home regarding the participation of their boys in the service.

The camp workers say there is an increased willingness among the commanding officers and surgeons to allow Christian Science treatment for those men who ask for it, and many Christian Science healings have been recorded. Recently two requests for Christian Science services in hospital wards were received by camp workers from medical nurses who had observed the beneficial effects of Christian Science treatment.

In or near numerous camps the Christian Science committees have erected substantial buildings, with quiet places for reading and writing, and other buildings are in course of construction. A light touring car has been added to the equipment of the Christian Science camp workers at each camp to be used whenever and wherever possible in assisting the men.

TWO DEVILS LOOSE ON WORLD

Former U. S. Senator From Utah Declares Kaiser and Polygamy Are the Scourge of the Earth

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 30.—"The people of France and Belgium think of Germany as the scourge of the world and of America as the saviour of civilization," said Frank J. Cannon, former United States senator from Utah, in his address before the Christian citizenship conference at Winona assembly. "Satan has loosed two devils on the world," he added. "The first is the devil of militarism, which has taken 25,000,000 of the young men of the world and set them to killing one another. The other is the devil of polygamy. Germany has declared that all womanhood is to be used to produce more men to be murdered in the slaughterhouse of the future wars. I fthe devil had only one blow to strike it would be aimed at the family. Germany has instituted polygamy by the wholesale. She is raising children for a new army."

STEEL SHIPS AS KIDS' TOYS

Miniature Ships Will Be Made by the Manufacturers That Youngsters May Learn Sailing

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Philadelphia, Aug. 30. — With the hope that the coming generation will become interested in the building and sailing of ships, the toy manufacturers have adopted a schedule to turn out wooden and steel vessels, miniatures of types now being launched by the United States shipping board emergency fleet corporation.

This plan was laid before Chairman Hurley of the shipping board by the American Toy Manufacturers' Association, which is composed of over 90 per cent of the makers in this country, and he enthusiastically received the plan.

Wooden ships will be constructed for seashore use and metal ones for nursery play. The latter will be sailed across the floor by an ingenious clockwork.

The toy manufacturers believe that with their natural proclivities for seeing how a toy is made the children will acquaint themselves with every detail and a large percentage of them will follow out the work when they grow older.

D. Chance, home address unrecorded, chanced to drive through the streets today taking a chance on one license tag on his automobile being sufficient to entitle him to right of way. Deputy Sheriff Leo Atherton chanced to discover the discrepancy and caused his arrest. It was no chance, however, that he was arraigned before Justice W. L. Johnson and fined $25 and costs making the total cost of being minus a second license tag, $34.15.

County Prosecutor W. J. Sawyers says drivers should know that two tags are necessary and that all who are found with but one will be arrested and fined.

BOYS APPRECIATE RED CROSS

Thomas R. O'Grady, In France, Says Most All The Fellows Think R.C. Workers Best of All

Thomas R. O'Grady a Maryville boy with the Fourth Infantry in France writes to Miss Hattie Hall of this city telling her among other interesting things, how much the boys appreciate the work of the Red Cross.

France July 18.

I have been in France three months and am feeling fine all the time and have seen lots of country. Am two miles from the line now, but have been close to the line most of the time. This was sure a red hot place Monday morning but I never got a scratch. I had to wear my gas mask for about five hours and that is nothing pleasant. But the nice part of it all was that the Germans didn't get anywhere with their drive and they surely must have suffered something terrible for our artillery was working hard on them. It is real quiet here now; the artillery is keeping up a steady fire but they never let up and we don't notice it except when they work fast. I had quite a nice trip across the water. The sea was not rough only one day and I was only sick about three hours. There are many beautiful places in France and it all shows that the country is an old one. Some parts are a hundred years behind the times. Everybody wears wooden shoes in wet weather and I never have seen a washing machine over here; they wash clothes on a board or rock with a brush. The buildings are all rock and built to last forever and there are few fences and the most of them are stone. I am in a barn right now and the walls are about twenty inches thick. France sure has fine rock roads but so much heavy traffic around here is wearing them bad. I suspect you wonder what is being done for us over here. Well, there is lots done and I appreciate the work of the Red Cross most of all and I think most of the men feel the same way. They gave us lots of things in the states and over here have served us hot chocolate when traveling and they also give us lots of tobacco, cigarettes, newspapers and magazines.

Pvt. Thomas R. O'Grady,

irrespective of the citizenship of your parents. If you were born abroad you are still a citizen of the United States if your father was a citizen of the United States at the time you were born, unless you have expatriated yourself.

Question 11—Naturalized citizen of the United States? You are a naturalized citizen if you have completed your naturalization, that is, if you have "taken out final papers." But you are not a citizen if you have only declared your intention to become a citizen (that is, if you have only "taken out first papers"); in the latter case you are a declarant.

Question 12—Citizen of the United States by father's naturalization? Before registrant's majority? The children of persons who have been duly naturalized under the laws of the United States, being under the age of 21 at the time of the naturalization of their parents, are, if dwelling in the United States before attaining their majority, considered as citizens thereof.

Question 13—Alien declarant? You are a declarant if, although a citizen or subject of some other country, you have declared before a naturalization court your intention to become a citizen of the United States. This is referred to as "taking out first papers."

Question 14—Alien non-declarant? You are a non-declarant alien if you do not fall within one of the classes described by questions 10, 11, 12 or 13, and are not an Indian. In other words, you are a non-declarant alien if you are a citizen or subject of some other country than the United States and have not declared your intention to become a citizen of the United States, that is, have not "taken out first papers."

Question 15 — If not a citizen of the United States, of what nation are you a citizen or subject? In the case of Czecho-Slovaks, German or Austrian Poles, Austrians, Lorrainers and persons of like status, the registrant may answer, "Czecho-Slovak, claimed as subject of Austria-Hungary," "Pole, claimed as subject of Germany or Austria-Hungary," "Alsatian, claimed as subject of Germany," etc., and such entry shall be made by the registrar.

Question 16—Present occupation? This means your present occupation, trade or employment. Simply state what your job is right now.

Question 17—Employer's name.

Question 18—Place of employment or business? This means where you work.

Question 19—Name of nearest relative? If you are married and your wife is living her name should be stated. If you are single or your wife is dead you should state the name of your nearest blood relative. If you are not married and have no blood relative, the name of a close friend should be stated.

Question 20—Address of nearest relative?

The registrar will ask the registrant if he receives his mail at any place other than that designated as his present permanent home address in answer to question 2. If he answers that he receives it at some other place the registrant shall state such place in full.

The registrant's signature or mark is placed by him at the bottom of the card in a blank space opposite the statement: "I affirm that I have verified above answers and that they are true."

Registration certificates slightly different in form, but not in substance, from those issued to registrants between the ages of 21 and 31 will be given to men who register under the extended age limits. The card will be blue and will measure 2½x4 inches.

Grouping of new draft registrants under the Man Power Bill into three general classes, including those between 19 and 21, 31 and 36 and from 36 to 45, as proposed by the provost marshal general, it was explained officially, is not intended to be used for the deferment of calling any one of those classes into service.

The purpose of this separation, it was stated, is to facilitate classification and make men quickly available to meet draft calls. The only deferment contemplated by the war department is that of the 18 - 19 - year men, whose summons to the colors will be postponed as long as is possible to carry out the educational program now being arranged.

Recruits immediately necessary to organize additional units will be drawn from men in Class 1 between the ages of 19 and 45, until this reservoir has been exhausted, but it is foreseen that these men may be used up in some local districts before they are in others. In such localities those between 18 and 19 will be summoned at once.
